

I oppose the mandating of a broadcast flag for HDTV broadcasts. In regulating the public airwaves for the public good, it seems inconsistent and perhaps unlawful for the FCC to mandate an encrypted playground for private interests. If the commercial interests wish to encrypt their content they can use satellite or cable systems and not the public broadcast spectrum to do so.